"CUISINE IS WHEN THINGS TASTE WHAT THEY ARE" Curnonsky

It is through the inspiration of this quote by the prince of gourmets that the "Vin dans les Voiles" has been growing south of the 16th district, near the Seine river and the Garigliano bridge.

Philippe Sergent, fine wines and cuisine passionate, started his dream come true wine restaurant in 2004. Antoine Castelli succeeded him in 2010 May.

The inspiration to create these palate delights stems from de country, the hearty bistro tradition, sometimes with a touch of originality and refinement.

MENUS

Our customers can choose inside a seasonal and "back from the market" menu, on a board (5 appetizers, 6 main courses and 5 deserts) that change daily

WINES

As for wines, Philippe Sergent then Antoine Castelli are rare find specialists, straight from the french wine regions. Having unique and special relationship with quality winemakers, they are able to offer a constantly renewed wine list to fit best the dishes they accompany.
